

SCOTT HODSDON

PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Scott Hodsdon is the Director of the Gilford Youth Center. He is in charge of programming, scheduling, and day-to-day operations of the center. Scott is also the Youth Director at the Gilford Community Church

Scott was born and raised in Somersworth, NH. After graduating from Somersworth High School, Scott majored in physical education at Plymouth State College. He played four years of college baseball, receiving the Paul Arold Award, given to the Most Outstanding Male Athlete at PSC. Following his playing days, Scott was an assistant coach for four years with the Plymouth State College baseball team.

Before coming to Gilford, Scott worked for the YMCA as an Assistant Aquatics Director. He also worked for the Meredith Parks and Recreation Department as a Summer Camp Director and an After School Program Director. Scott has also taught at the high school level, both at Inter-Lakes High School and the Life Centered Learning Institute in Tilton, NH.

Scott now lives with his wife Kate in Concord, NH. He is currently an assistant coach with the Merrimack Valley High School Varsity Baseball team and the Granite State Big Blue Senior Babe Ruth Team. During the fall Scott is the head coach of the Concord area GSBA baseball team, which is a showcase league for high school players that wish to pursue college baseball.
